Sunday morning, the pastor, Rev. G. A Reasonable Plea H. Ewing, took for his text Loke II:49. A Reasonable Plea saying in substance: If must was the supreme word for Jesus, should it not be the word for us today? The weakness of this age is its lack of respect for the authority of the law. We need to enter afresh into the covenant with our God and with the church. We should keep the covenant, honor the church, and walk in fellowship with tive Power, Why Not Help the Stomach Do Its Work?

The rendering of the duet, Re Thou My Guide, by Miss Ruth L. Potter and Especially When It Costs Nothing to Try. Not with drugs, but with a rein-forcement of digestive agents, such as are naturally at work in the stomach? Scientific analysis shows that digestion requires pepsin, nitrogenous fer-ments and the secretion of hydrochlo-ric geld. When your food fails to di-gest, it is proof positive that some of these agents are lacking in your di-gestive apparatus.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets contain nothing but these natural elements necessary to digestion and when placed at work in the weak stomach and small intestines, supply what these organs need. They stimulate the gastric glands and gradually bring the digestive organs back to their normal condition.
